(54) MANUFACTURING METHOD FOR PRINTED MATTER

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To perform predetermined confirmation of data such as sounds included in a coded image printed actually on a paper surface of printed matter by using a coded image equivalent to the coded image printed actually on the paper surface of the printed matter by printing the equivalent coded image by a printer in advance.

SOLUTION: Coding processing is applied to data such as sounds to generate the coded image suitable for print (step S402), and the coded image suitable for the generated print is printed on a predetermined printing medium by the printer so as to enable optical reading (step S404). Predetermined confirmation is done concerning the data such as sounds included in the printed coded image (step S405), and the coded image suitable for printing is printed on the predetermined printing medium so as to enable optical reading (step S415).
